Wickham Folk Festival

The Parish Council has supported the proposal for a Folk Festival in Wickham, the event will take place at the Community Centre from Thursday 3rd until Sunday 6th August.

The Festival should help raise substantial funds for the Community Centre.

Folk Festivals are family affairs, parking and camping is planned on the outskirts of the village. Strict licensing and environmental health conditions will be adhered to.

A full time Health and Safety Officer will be employed together with 24 hour security. No late night parties will be permitted!

Folk fans will be pleased to hear Richard Thompson is headlining, Oysterband and Shooglenifty are two other bands to look out for.

Concerts end at 11pm Thursday – Saturday and 10.30pm on Sunday.

To book tickets see the website:

South East Plan

The South East Plan has been completed and submitted to Government for approval. Prior to approval it is subject to a public consultation which runs until 23rd June.

The Plan includes a proposal for 10,000 new houses and employment space 'north of Fareham' which will surround Knowle.

To view and respond to the plan look at the South East Plan website:
