Christmas Light Switch on 6.30pm Wednesday 4th December

How will Father Christmas arrive this year?

Grotto in the Kings Head, activities for children in Warwick Lane, Scouts are providing refreshments

Government funding for Extra Care

Winchester District is to benefit from £1.8m of Department of Health funding for Extra Care assisted living which helps people who might otherwise have required residential care, to live in a home of their own.

Schemes will include both one and two bed units to enable couples, with differing levels of need, to remain living together. Twenty-four hour care and support will be available on-site, by qualified staff.
